WC Women Welcome Lysa TerKeurst for Upcoming Book Tour

By Cassidy Johnson

Worship, fellowship and a presentation from a best-selling Christian author— This upcoming event is sure to bring people together from all over the community.

On Monday, March 6, WC Women will welcome Lysa TerKeurst for "The Good Boundaries and Goodbyes" book tour. At the event, TerKeurst will share a few topics from her new book, and she will talk through how to love others without losing who you are. Her stop in Southlake will be one of 12 stops around the country.

According to her website, TerKeurst has been through many difficult seasons in her life, including marital heartbreak and a cancer diagnosis... but she also outlines God's faithfulness through it all. For in those moments of sadness and frustration, she has continued to seek the Lord and study His Word.

"God's love for you means that you have to love yourself as God loves you."

As a New York Times Best-Selling Author, she is well known for her faith-focused books and Bible studies. Some of her works include "It's Not Supposed to Be This Way," "Uninvited," "The Best Yes," "Forgiving What You Can't Forget," "Is God Speaking to Me?," and—most recently—"Good Boundaries and Goodbyes." She is also the president of Proverbs 31 Ministries, which provides online resources to women all over the world who are seeking God's Truth. In addition to writing and managing Proverbs 31 Ministries, she loves spending time with her five kids and three grandkids.

"I am very excited to have Lysa with us because her new book shares the lessons she has learned and advice she would give on setting boundaries and staying true to yourself," said Pastor for Women's Ministry Rev. Joy Roberson. "So often women don't keep or set boundaries for themselves in the name of sacrifice for one's family or people-pleasing. God's love for you means that you have to love yourself as God loves you, and that can be tricky in a culture that thinks differently."

Our White's Chapel musicians outdid themselves with a stellar show last Sunday, featuring songs from many of Broadway's most famous productions. The show was a true nod to the amazing talents that bless our church each and every week!

International Mission Trip Takes WC Women to Belize

Volunteers will be leaving Sunday, Feb. 18 for the church's second international mission trip of 2023.

The destination for this all-woman mission trip is Belize—with WC's Pastor for Women's Ministry Rev. Joy Roberson leading the group.

"Our women's ministry has a history of doing international trips," said Roberson, "but that hasn't happened in quite a few years. After the pandemic, it was time to switch things up from traveling to San Antonio and working with Blueprint Ministries to somewhere a little farther away. I previously had a wonderful experience working with a Methodist-run school in Belize when I was on staff at Marvin UMC. I had always wanted to return with a group."

Volunteers will be leaving Sunday, Feb. 18 for the church's second international mission trip of 2023.

"Our connection to the Belize Methodist Church led us to a current missionary there, Sandy Rausch, and she has worked through all the logistics for us," she continued. "We will be working at Trinity Methodist School and Church in Belize City. The church is in need of repainting from damage by the weather, and the school has many things that we will be fixing. School is in session, so we will be able to interact with the children after school as well."

The church is a part of the Belize Honduras District, one of eight districts within the Methodist Churches in the Caribbean.

The school and church are both on the same campus. In addition to refreshing and painting, they will also replace the logo. "The kids go to chapel every morning," said Roberson, "so we are looking forward to going with them to experience their chapel time. We will also have a chance to play with them after school. It's a great opportunity for connection."

Roberson went to Belize about 23 years ago and is very excited to get to go back. "The country has many similarities—we speak the same language and have a very similar monetary system."

She hopes the trip will be one that will encourage a long-term relationship with

One Word.

“Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it.”

– William Arthur Ward –

By Dr. Todd Renner

I remember reading an interview with Stephen King several years ago; and he said something that struck me at the time as brilliantly true ... even in its simplicity. He said when asked, “How do you write your novels?” he always replies, “One word at a time.”

One word. You see, it’s become an annual New Year’s Eve discipline for me: as the yearly countdown wraps up over in Dallas—5-4-3-2-1—and the fireworks begin to erupt from Reunion Tower, I pray. I thank God for the year that was, and I offer Him the year that’s yet to be. And I ask God for a word. Just one word. I ask the Almighty for my “Word for the Year”—that virtue, that quality, that characteristic, that fruit—that He really wants me to take 365 days to focus on.

And I know it’s nothing unique to me. I know several of us do the same thing. In years past, my words have included Patience and Wisdom and Gentleness (that one took me three years to work on) and Trust (a particularly hard word to live into). This year’s word: Gratitude.

So, I want to dedicate this space this week simply to say a personal word of thanks. Beyond all the words of gratitude that we typically offer on behalf of the church, I want—I need—to say thank you on behalf of my soul. As I invited us to consider sharing in our sermon last weekend, I need to say that I am thankful that God put y’all into my life. I am thankful for the lessons that you’ve taught me ... and for the lessons that you’ll continue to teach. Thank you for teaching me how to be a preacher and how to be a pastor. Thank you for teaching me how to be a husband and how to be a dad. Thank you for teaching me how to listen and how to speak, how to lead ... and how to follow. Your fingerprints are all over my life, my family, and my ministry. And I know I still have much to learn. So, thank you for the patience that you’ve shown me (and for the patience that I’m sure I’ll continue to need). I cannot imagine what my life would’ve been like without you. And for all that, “thanks” seems far too inadequate.

But if one word can suffice, “thanks” seems a good start!

P.S. :: Even though I know we’re already into February, let me urge us to consider asking God for our own “Word for the Year” ... it’s never too late to start!

Contemplative Discussion on Films Tuesdays, Beginning March 7 | 10:45 a.m. to Noon | Center for Spiritual Care

Can we see God's presence in the movies that we watch? Leader Rev. Victor Resendiz believes we can. He has selected three films that essentially tell stories that consist of grace, redemption, kinship, inner healing and other elements that everyone can relate to. The group discussion in this class is open, insightful, and reflective. Together, we all begin to see how evident God's presence is in these selected titles. This three-week study is open to all (March 7, 21, 28). Each week, a movie will be assigned for you to watch at home and then the group will discuss the film the following week. Participants must register on the church website.

Christians Facing Cancer Patients—Survivors—Caregivers—Friends Tuesday, Feb. 14 | 6:30 p.m. Room 2129 | First Floor Evans Hall "The Healing Power of Silence"

Presented by Kim King

The World Health Organization has called noise pollution a "modern plague," and rightly so. Many studies have warned about the harm that excessive noise causes not only to our health and mental well-being, but to the health of the planet. The profound power of silence can result in multiple body and mind benefits including better sleep, lower blood pressure, stress reduction and lower risk of heart disease. Join Christians Facing Cancer and Kim King as we discuss silence—God's first language.

Kim King is a White's Chapel member, certified Mindfulness and Meditation Teacher, and an 18-year breast cancer survivor. She lives in Grapevine with her husband Greg.

Christians Facing Cancer provides encouragement for cancer patients, caregivers, family members, and friends whose lives have been impacted by a cancer diagnosis. The group meets on the second Tuesday of each month. For additional information, contact BJ Landers at landerscln@aol.com, (817) 683-6088, or supportgroups@whiteschapel.org.

Methodism in Belize

The Methodist Church in the Caribbean and the Americas was inaugurated in 1967 at the Methodist Conference Centre, St. John's, Antigua. Beginning with the witness and preaching of the speaker of the House of Assembly in Antigua in 1760, the work grew into a mission field of the Methodist Missionary Society of London. The Baltimore Conference of 1784 appointed the first leader of the island's Methodists as an elder. In 1786, several British ministers arrived, who were stationed in Antigua, St. Kitts and St. Vincent. The conference comprises eight districts: Bahamas/Turks and Caicos Islands, Belize/Honduras, Guyana, Haiti, Jamaica, Leeward Islands, Panama/Costa Rica and South Caribbean. The church therefore covers an area where English, French, Spanish, Dutch, French Creole, Papiamentu and Guyami (the language of the Guyami Indians of Panama) are spoken. Close ties have been maintained with British Methodists through its World Church Office in London, and both churches have a continuing interest in partnership and mission. Over the years, links have been established with other autonomous Methodist Conferences such as Fiji, Samoa, Tonga, Ghana and Southern Africa.

Build a Home Project—Trinity Habitat for Humanity

Saturday, April 15 & 22 | 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.

White's Chapel is working with Trinity Habitat for Humanity to fund and build a home in the Fort Worth Hillside/Morningside community. The church needs at least 20 volunteers for each of the two build dates: Saturday, April 15 and Saturday, April 22. Volunteers must be at least 16 years old; youth under 18 may not operate power tools.

Volunteers will work, often alongside the home partner, under the direction of trained Habitat construction leaders on the home exterior. Work may include raising the walls, installing tornado fortifications, installing windows, and putting up siding. No prior experience is required. The workday is 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., but volunteers should plan to arrive by 7:45 a.m. for a few words and prayer. Safety is the number one goal, so the workday will start with a safety lesson given by the construction project manager.

Online registration will be available soon. Please check the church website in coming weeks for additional information. If individual participants are signing up more volunteers, select the number of slots (reservations) needed and include the additional names in the comments field. After completing the registration, volunteers will receive an email with the home address, what to bring and wear, and a Trinity Habitat liability waiver to bring on the day of the event. Beverly Chernoff | bcher06@gmail.com
